Data protection

Written consent according to data protection

The organization collects, processes and uses personal data of its members (details about personal and factual circumstances) using data processing equipment (EDP) to fulfil the purposes and tasks permitted according to these statutes, for example within the framework of the general meeting. This includes in particular the following member data: Name and address, bank details (if SEPA direct debit mandate is issued), telephone number, e-mail address, date of birth, function in the organization.

The personal data stated in the membership application, which are necessary and required solely for the purpose of the execution of the resulting contractual relationship, are collected on the basis of legal entitlements. Through their membership and the associated recognition of the organization's statutes, the members agree to the collection, processing (storage, modification, transmission) and use of their personal data to the aforementioned extent.

For any further use of personal data and the collection of additional information, the consent of the person concerned is regularly required. You can give such consent voluntarily in the following section.

Consent to the use of data for further purposes

If you agree to the following purposes of use, please tick them accordingly. If you do not wish to give your consent, please leave these fields blank.

- I agree that Weltherz e.V. informs me regularly via e-mail newsletter about the organization, its current work and current projects.
